

"YOUNG AMERICA."—The Lafayette (Ind.) Journal tells a good story of a precocious little fellow who walked into the house of a citizen of that city one day last week, and after taking a seat by the fire, very coolly informed the lady of the house that he was on his way to Chicago, and if they had no objection, he would remain over night. The lady of course consented, and the little stranger was kindly cared for. He gave his name as Charlie, and said that he lived in Cleveland. When asked what he was going to Chicago for, he answered that he was "traveling for his health." All attempts to obtain the name of his parents were unavailing. He obstinately persisted that he never had any.

The Columbus, Mississippi, Democrat says:—"We would not vote for our father if he were alive and advocated 'prompt and peaceful secession.'" Nor we, but speaking of secession, nobody secedes from the belief in Perry Davis' Pain Killer. On the contrary, there are constant annexations to the crowds who call upon the Agents. MESSRS. BARNES.—They say
"Love is but a frenzy,
Love is but a dizziness,
It was not let a pair body
Gang about his business."

And Shakespeare says that cupid, the fabled god of love, is "that same naked bastard of Venus, who was begot of thought, conceived of spleen, and born of madness, that blind, rascally boy, that abuses every one's eyes because he has none of his own." This is mere slander, for the pretty, little, fat, rosy-cheeked cherub archer, has sent on a
